"Petersburg--A Petersburg man was found dead early Saturday near railroad tracks just west of Walnut Mall. Petersburg Lt. Bill Rhode said the body of Leonard M. Almarode, 38 of 6 Hampton Court, was found about 2 a.m. Rhode said Almarode, who may have been walking home, apparently died of a head injury. Police are trying to determine how Almarode was injured."

Source: Richmond Times Dispatch Feb. 6, 1990

"Petersburg--Police say it's unclear whether a city man whose body was found near railroad tracks early Saturday morning died by accident or homicide. Police Lt. W. C. Rhode said an autopsy showed that a head injury killed Leonard Michael Almarode, 38, of Hampton Court, whose body was found by the railroad bed between Norfolk Southern tracks in southern Petersburg. Friends said they last saw Almarode around 12:30 a. m. Saturday walking home in the direction of the tracks after a party, Rhode said. Around 2 a. m. a railroad employee on a passing train spotted a person lying between the tracks near Oak Hill Road and Homestead Drive, Rhode said Police found Almarode dead, with his dog, a Siberian Husky, waiting by his side. Rhode said money was found on the body, which suggests no robbery attempt was made. Almarode may have been assaulted, struck by a train or fallen, Rhode said."

I remember when this happened. Uncle Hampton lived in a house not too far from the tracks. My grandmother said drugs may have been involved because Michael did have a drug problem. The police had a hard time getting to his body because of his dog. His dog was protecting him which made my Uncle Hampton think it was someone his son knew.
